RASMUSSEN COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS “HOT CAREERS” FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

Higher Education Provider Hosts Career Night with Degree-Focused Breakout Sessions

EAGAN, Minn., (August 26, 2010) - Rasmussen College invites prospective students and local community members to attend an informational event highlighting “hot careers” in growing industries on Thursday, September 23. Rasmussen College staff and faculty will educate attendees about new program offerings at the Eagan campus and their application in expanding career fields including Nursing, Law Enforcement, Business, Accounting, Multimedia and Design, Exercise Science, Medical Assisting, and Information Systems Management.

“Rasmussen College recognizes the job market has become increasingly competitive, giving degree holders a significant advantage on the job search process,” Rasmussen College Eagan Campus Director Tammy Jackson said. “Our Associate’s and Bachelor’s degree programs are designed for students interested in entering in-demand fields. The informational sessions at our career night will allow attendees to learn more about these diverse programs and career paths that best suit their personal needs and strengths.”
