RASMUSSEN COLLEGE HOSTS VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS INTERESTED IN EARNING THEIR DEGREE ONLINE

Premier Online Education Provider Highlights Degree Programs Offered Online Through School of Business and School of Technology and Design

MINNEAPOLIS, (September 7, 2010) - Rasmussen College, a premier provider of Bachelor's and Associate's degrees online and through its network of 21 campuses, will host a "Virtual Open House" on Thursday, September 9 and Monday, September 13. Rasmussen College faculty and staff will be signed in to answer questions from prospective students and provide information about the eight Bachelor's degree programs and 16 Associate's degree programs it offers online through its School of Business and School of Technology and Design.

"At Rasmussen College, we recognize that a flexible course schedule is one thing many students desire. With our online program offerings, students can earn a college degree on their own schedule while also benefiting from the resources available at any of our physical campuses located throughout the Midwest and in Florida," Rasmussen College Online Campus Director Lynne Croteau said. "Degree programs offered through Rasmussen College Online are tailored to provide students with the knowledge and tools necessary to obtain a career in fields that are expected to see the most growth. At the "Virtual Open House," prospective students can find a degree program that meets their unique needs."

Open House attendees are encouraged to prepare questions for Rasmussen College representatives regarding the enrollment process, courses, available degrees, the financial aid process, career services and opportunities, as well as the support each student can receive. Prospective students can register for the event at www.Rasmussen.edu/openhouse.
