

If you are like most students, you don't have a pile of cash laying around to pay for college. So you'll be glad to know that based solely on your high school cumulative GPA, Rasmussen College offers scholarship opportunities up to $10,000 for incoming freshmen. Below is an overview of the available Grade Point Achievement scholarships. Ask your program manager for all the details and an application.

Eligibility guidelines for the Grade Point Achievement Scholarships are as follows:

- Eligible students must be current year graduating high school seniors.
- Students must apply for and begin classes during the summer quarter, early fall quarter, or fall quarter immediately following their graduation from high school.
- Award amounts are determined upon receipt of the student's official transcript from high school upon completion of the first half of the student's senior year.
- All recipients will be notified of the award in writing and all funds are paid directly to Rasmussen College. Award amounts for Associate's Degree students are divided equally among the student's first five quarters of attendance. Award amounts for Bachelor's Degree students are divided equally among the student's first 10 quarters of attendance.
- Students must carry a minimum of nine credits per full quarter or seven credits for a mid-start term, maintain satisfactory academic progress, and not be on Academic Warning/Probation or the award is forfeited from that point forward.
- Awards are forfeited if attendance is discontinued or interrupted for Associate's Degree-seeking students. Bachelor's Degree-seeking students may interrupt attendance a maximum of two instances with each instance no more than one quarter and not more than once in any one calendar year.

\ Grade point average is based upon a 4.0 scale. Other grade point scales will be converted to a 4.0 scale to determine award.*
